TCI Wealth Advisors Hosts Local Artist Exhibit

TUCSON, Ariz. (March 3, 2011) — TCI Wealth Advisors is excited to latest in a series of art exhibits showcasing the work of local artists. The exhibit is hosted in TCI Wealth Advisors' new headquarters at 4011 East Sunrise Dr, Tucson. The latest exhibition will present images from artist Bernita Barfield and will be on display from March 3, 2011 – April 27, 2011. The exhibit is open to the public Monday through Friday from 3:00pm – 4:00pm.

In describing her work, Bernita says that the vast and majestic vistas of the Southwest are her constant source of inspiration. She states that she tends to resist the many rules of art, the “always and the nevers” as she finds they can be too confining and restrictive. As much as she paints for her own pleasure, she is deeply humbled and gratified when others connect with her art.

Bernita has always had a passion for art and in fact, took art classes during her attendance at Eastern Michigan University. For the past 35 years, she has been an avid amateur photographer and that experience has honed her eye for composition and design. However, because of a full-time career as well as her involvement in breeding Arabian horses, Bernita never had the time to dedicate to learning the creative process. Bernita's formal training did not begin until 2004 when she attended classes sponsored by the Taos School of Art in New Mexico. Since then, she has attended several workshops with various artists as well as have her work exhibited in juried shows in the Empire Ranch Western Art Show, the Tubac Center of the Arts and the Huachuca Art Association.
