(1) The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 provides that the qualified portion of a regulated investment company dividend that is a short-term capital gain dividend will not be subject to U.S. tax withholding for non-resident aliens and foreign corporations. Funds which paid short-term capital gain distributions have 100% Qualified Short-Term Capital Gains.

(2) Foreign Tax Credit is applicable for certain Funds. Please see enclosed information regarding the Foreign Tax Credit specific to your Fund.

Distributions of net investment income and short-term capital gains, whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2019, are taxable as ordinary income for Federal income tax purposes. Distributions of long-term capital gains are taxable as such whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in your account during 2019, regardless of the length of time shares were held by you.

Past distributions and performance are no guarantee of future distributions or results. If you are investing through an IRA or other tax-deferred account, special rules apply.

Foreign Tax Information

The information below summarizes the amount of income by fund that was derived from foreign sources. The foreign source income may have taxes associated with it that were paid to various foreign jurisdictions. Included on your Form 1099-DIV is your proportionate amount of these foreign taxes (Box #6). You may claim this amount either as an itemized deduction or as a foreign tax credit, subject to applicable limitations, on your federal tax return. We suggest that you consult a tax advisor to determine which method is more appropriate for you. To claim a foreign tax credit, you may need to file IRS Form 1116. To determine the amount of foreign source income for Form 1116, multiply the amount in Box 1a of your Form 1099-DIV by the "Foreign Source Income Factor" in the table below.
